

New Directors for the WWCE board

David Hauser was the Secretary to the Sizewell Public Enquiry early in his career. In 1994 he was appointed Director for Consumer Affairs at the Office of Electricity Regulation, and later as Director of Regions at the Office of Gas and Electricity Markets. Since retiring he has been a member of the Severn Trent Water Consumers Council, Chair of Kings Stanley Parish Council and Chair of Governors at Maidenhill Secondary school in Stonehouse, Gloucestershire.

Rob Gillies has been a member of Wiltshire Wildlife Trust since moving to Wiltshire 7 years ago. He works around the UK and Europe as a Managing Consultant for an environmental research and consulting company and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development and of the Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment. Rob is also a Fellow of the Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufacturing and Commerce (RSA) and serves on the Society's Regional Committee for the West, with a specific remit for developing sustainability and environment ideas and action.
